

Ralph's Memory Book

As you may have heard, sadly, Ralph McGinn, WorkSafeBC's chair, former CEO, and former V-P of Prevention Services, passed away on May 11. To celebrate his remarkable contributions to WorkSafeBC and to the workers and employers of British Columbia, we're compiling a memory book as a special keepsake for his family.

We welcome tributes from retirees:

There are likely many retirees who knew Ralph, and many who worked closely with him. If they would like to share a story in the memory book, or send their condolences to Ralph's family, we would be thrilled to include their submissions.

The submissions can be a few paragraphs long, or a single sentence. We know all tributes, short or long, will be equally meaningful to Ralph's family.

Please help us spread the word

Is it possible for the WCB Retirees Association to share our request?

To meet our production timeline, we would need the submissions by Monday, June 8. Each submission should include the retiree's name, role at WorkSafeBC, and years of service.

We would like to include photos of Ralph in the memory book as well. So, if anyone has any on hand, we would welcome them along with a description of the photo and the names of the people featured in it.

We will share the memory book with you

After we've delivered the memory book to Ralph's family in July, we would be happy to share an online version with your association.

If retirees are interested in participating, they can send their submission to me, (Carol-Anne Doucet) carol-anne.doucet@worksafebc.com. Please let me know if you need more information.

I'm happy to chat on the phone if you like.
